Plagiarism and nonsense, oh my! If this were a printed book it wouldn't be good enough for bathroom emergencies, or leveling a table with one leg too short. First, the recipes in this "book" were ALL lifted from blogs, the words barely moved around a bit. Search the internet you'll easily find where they were taken from. The changes made in this "book" to the original recipes sometimes render them into complete nonsense. This is very unethical, to say the least. Second, the "author" knows absolutely nothing about Dominican cuisine, and this is hilariously obvious right from the introduction. Third, there are no pictures in this book -- except for the cover, which does not depict a Dominican dish -- almost certainly because the "author" first heard about Dominican cuisine from the blog he stole the recipes from.

Leave the cooking to the experts (Gordon Rock ain't one of them!). This book is awful. Fake recipes and the picture on the cover isn't even Dominican food. Waste of money! Do not buy this book.

Instead, search "Dominican Cooking" online and check out recipes from people who actually make Dominican food daily.

Stolen content. I think there is not real person behind this project. He says he is a Food and Wine collaborator and they posted on Twitter they don't even know him. As dominican I'd like to know what recipe is the one in the cover????? Do not buy this book, all the content you would find it online for free where he took it from. I think the people behind this project should be ashamed of themselves and too, for let them sell this "book" here.

The recipes are not clear, they are missing steps. The reason of this is the author. He has not idea about Dominican Food at all! Oh, wait! He actually has not idea about anything food related since his main profession is stealing content. Buyers be aware ebook is fake, don't give your money to a thief!

This is a bad case of copy and paste. The alleged "author" of this so called book is nothing but a thief. All the recepies included in this book were developed by food bloggers, who really DO KNOW Dominican Cooking. Wouldnt be surprised that Gordon Rock is a fake name.

If hastily bodged plagiarism garnished with photos of nothing resembling Dominican food is your passion, why thusly, this 'cookbook' is certinameously for you.

This guy is stealing recipes from bloggers. He even steals pictures. I really do not understand why it is still at !

Recipes from this book are stolen from blogs. PLEASE, do not buy this cookbook.
