Josephine's Guest House Quilt (East Perry County Series Book 2)

Synopsis

Ann Hazelwood's delightful new series continues in Josephine's Guest House Quilt. Kate Meyr continues to be charmed by the beauty of Borna, Missouri. Now, after encouragement from her friends Clark and Ellie, she decides to turn her home into a guesthouse, which East Perry County desperately needs. Wanting to acknowledge Dr. Paulson and his wife, Josephine, whose spirit still haunts the home, she names her new business Josephine's Guest House. Kate also commissions a quilt to be made by her friend Ruth Ann to hang in the entry hall for guests to sign. Everything seems to be coming together and guests are intrigued by Josephine's presence, but why do some of the guests' names disappear from the signature quilt and some remain?

I had read Ann Hazelwood's Colebridge series. It was excellent! It is the kind of book that you just can't put down! This series is the same way! I can't wait for the new books of this series to come out! I have read the first two already!

Ann is a good writer and I enjoy her books. Being an avid quilter it's right up my alley. I think they need better proofing, that can bug me sometimes.

I enjoyed this book and the previous one immensely. The characters and town were believable and real to life. Waiting anxiously for the next book

Excellent!! Shared with friends who also love Ann Hazelwood's books. She needs to write faster, I want the next book in the series!!!
